“Jokes of the Month”

Q: If you get dehydrated on Halloween night, what happens the next day?
A: November thirst!

Q: Did you hear about the star that exploded at the end of autumn?
A: It made for a super Nova-ember!

Q: Why does everyone think
November is a pessimist?
A: Because it always starts things off with a “no”!

Q: Why does November love
the Macy’s Day Parade?
A: Because it’s always a moving performance!

Q: Why did the lumberjack decide to not shave at the end of November?
A: The beard grew on him!

RESIDENT RIGHTS

MEDICAID & MEDICARE PAYMENTS

- Staff at the facility must tell you, and also provide you with written information, on how to apply for Medicaid and Medicare and how these programs may be able to pay for your care.
- You can ask for and receive information about your community spouse's rights under the Medicaid program from facility staff.
- You can ask for a written list of the items for which Medicaid and Medicare pay. You may ask about the facility's daily rate, as well as what may increase or decrease your rate.
- You cannot be asked to give up your right to participate in Medicaid or Medicare.
- You must be treated and cared for the same as all other residents, regardless of who is paying for your care.
- You cannot be asked to leave the facility if you have submitted all the necessary paperwork to a potential payment source (Medical Assistance, Medicare, LTC Insurance, etc.) and are awaiting approval and payment. If that payment source DENIES your application, then you are responsible for payment. If you refuse to pay, you may be given a discharge notice.

Nursing home residents' rights are the legal and moral rights of the residents of a nursing home.
