We are open for visitation with no advanced scheduling!! We ask that you wear your mask, symptom/temperature screen, and stay away from visitation if you are feeling ill, close contact of COVID-19, or COVID positive.

“Jokes of the Month”

Q: What kind of drink can be bitter and sweet?

A: Reali-tea!

Q: Want to know why nurses like red crayons?

A: Sometimes they have to draw blood!

Q: What would the Terminator be called in his retirement?

A: The Exterminator!

My wife asked me to go get 6 cans of Sprite from the grocery store. I realized when I got home that I had picked 7up!

Q: When does a joke becomes a “dad joke?”

A: When it becomes apparent!

Q: What does a house wear?

A: Address!

RESIDENT RIGHTS

Understanding your rights as a resident of an ND nursing facility

RESIDENT RIGHTS NOTIFICATIONS

- The facility is required to provide you and a member of your immediate family, resident representative, or any existing legal guardian, a written statement of your rights, the responsibilities of both you and the facility, and the rules governing your conduct, at the time you are admitted. Within 30 days after your admission, (and every year from then on) the statement must be verbally explained to you. If you are unable to understand, it should be explained to your immediate family member or any existing legal guardian.
- You and your resident representative must be promptly notified of any changes in resident rights under federal or state law or regulations.
- You have the right to request additional written copies of this statement at any time during your stay at the facility
- The facility must make you, your interested family member, resident representative, or legal guardian aware of any changes in your rights under federal or state laws or regulations.
- If after a period of inability to understand your rights you regain the ability to understand, the facility is then responsible to again inform YOU of your rights and responsibilities.
- The facility's staff is responsible to assist you in exercising your rights to the fullest possible extent.

Don't Stop Believing

NDLTCA

KRCC staff attended the North Dakota Long Term Care Convention the beginning of May. Great sessions and lots of new ideas were brought back!

Administrator Blake grilling hamburgers and hot dogs for residents and staff during National Nursing Home week!

Residents Carol Bickler and Elmer Sailer purchased bird houses that were made and donated for the KRCC bingo store!
